Is prepared from sound, ripe fruit, by an experienced analytical chemist, who has spent years in experimenting on its preparation. It is manufactured by a special process known only to the proprietor. This preparation is a safe, simple and effective medicine for regulating the action of the stomach, liver and kidneys. It is most particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Nausea, Sea Sickness, Kidney and Liver Troubles, Over-indulgence either in eating or drinking, etc. As a purifier of the blood in all Scrofulous Diseases, it has no equal. FOR THE GOOD OF THE STATE

The San Francisco Chronicle publishes the GAZETTE's financial summary of recent date, and proceeds to discuss the showing in this way.

The State now owes $425,000, and the GAZETTE puts the receipts from all sources for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, at $386,321. The unfunded debt in 1879 was $88,000. The monthly receipts for the period covered (twelve months) appear to exceed the monthly expenditures for the thirty months ending June 30, 1881, by $3,210 per month. But with a property tax of 90 cents on the $100 and rapidly declining values, the situation has a melancholy look for the future. The bottom fact of Nevada's financial strain is that her State Government was begun and has been continued on the high-pressure plan. With a population that does not exceed that of two second-class counties of California, she pays her Governor $6,000 a year, her three Supreme Judges $7,000 each, her Lieutenant-Governor $3,600 and five other State officers the same, with clerks and subordinates in proportion and also district officers. The whole State machinery is extravagantly cut out as if it were intended for a great State like New York or Pennsylvania or unlimited resources and rapid growth in wealth. California pays her Governor nor Lieutenant-Governor and six chiefs of executive departments, all told, but $24,000. The same offices cost Nevada $28,100, and Colorado but $14,200. But Colorado has 50 per cent. more taxable property than Nevada, more than three times the population, and no funded debt. That is why the State taxes in the one State are 90 and the other but 36 cents on the $100. Nevada should lose no time in getting down from her lofty perch taken in flush bonanza times, and thoroughly reforming the compensation of her public officers.

There have already been some reductions in salaries provided for. But with few exceptions the decrease has been made in the wrong departments. The comparisons made by the Chronicle above will bear close study, and it is becoming plain that notwithstanding the policy of obstruction on the part of the officers, our expose is meeting with that intelligent, non-political discussion which we desired. If our people once understand the blunders of their servants, the corrective methods will soon be applied.

IT WASN'T ME.

Politics seem to blunt the moral senses. County and State officers seem to have different standards of right and duty from ordinary business men. It is the hardest thing in the world to convince a man where he has done wrong, no matter what irregularities he may have been into. He will find some sophistry to ease his conscience, or some one else that is worse than he. Norton could hardly be brought to realize that he had committed a crime in using the county moneys. All of the officers now feel greatly aggrieved when we hint that some one is to blame for the $2,800 in Reno Savings Bank certificates that have lain three or four years without being collected. The County Commissioners, who counted it as cash, do not think they have any responsibility. Mr. Boyd says it was not his place to collect it, and Norton's bondsmen say they paid when it was issued; and so it goes. It certainly seems that when the new vault was built, the county moneys should all have been drawn out of the banks and placed in the vault. At that time the bank had not failed, and the certificates were good. The GAZETTE has no intention of assailing Mr. Boyd's character, or that of the Commissioners. No one believes them capable of intentional dishonesty. The report of Attorney Rankin will soon be made, and will contain his opinion of who is responsible.

We feel very thankful for the kindness of R. L. Fulton, of the Reno Gazette, towards the REPUBLICAN owners. As soon as he learned of our loss, he immediately telegraphed that his office was at our service. Circumstances rendered it impossible for us to take advantage of the offer at the time, but this number of the REPUBLICAN is printed with Gazette material. We trust the Gazette will never be caused to print its paper away from its own office and that it shall be free from every disaster.—Truckee Republican.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Referring to the Comstock Loyd Tevis says: "Whether any such bonanzas as those of California and Consolidated Virginia yet remain in the Comstock, is a question which can only be determined by further explorations. But, even should no such bonanzas be found, the deposits of low-grade ore which have hitherto been passed by, will, under careful management, and cheaper methods, yield steady and large returns—returns which if less likely to stimulate speculation, are more likely to add to solid wealth."

Immense quantities of sugar-pine lumber are being shipped from the lower hills of the Sierra Nevada near Little York, Nevada county, to this city.—Stock Report.

This will be news for Nevada county people. They supposed there was not a sugar pine within miles and miles of Little York.

There will probably be no consolidation between the Enterprise and Chronicle in Virginia. There is no doubt, however, that the matter has been under serious consideration. Former greatness will not be swallowed up by the ability of young rivals just yet.

The Grass Valley Tidings says: The Supreme Court of this State is what rules the people of the State of California.

The Tidings then proceeds to reverse the weak decision of the said Court in a few brief editorial moments.

The Enterprise people deny the story that the Enterprise and Chronicle will be consolidated. They lay its origin to Fred Hart of the Stock Report.

Baldwin county, Ala., has a population of 9,000, among whom is not a resident lawyer and only one doctor. There was a lawyer there once, but the doctor is said to have disposed of him.

and J. N. Trask to the value of $5,042 75, making a total for the week of $14,494 58.

The report of James G. Swain, meteorological observer at Nesh Bay, W. T., indicates a great diminution of humidity in the northwestern corner of the Territory during the past year as compared with each of the two years previous. The rainfall of the year ending June 30th, 1881, was 17.05 inches less than during the year ending June 30, 1880, and 38.80 inches less than during the year ending June 30, 1879.

Settling.

—Fall River Valley, Lassen county, produces this year 100,000 bushels of barley.

—Col. Moore settled with Ruhe, Clarke and Knox yesterday. They drew over $6,000.

—La Roche & Sooy, the well-known photographers, will leave Reno for Butte City, Montana, on August 24th. Call in time.

—The GAZETTE has just finished some book work for the Fair Society, and countless smaller jobs for business men. All in the latest style.

—They say Gen. Kittrell will settle in Eureka. They have said "Kit" was going, at one time or another, to settle in every town on the coast which has 3,000 inhabitants.

Dissolution.

The partnership heretofore existing between Rositer Jones and Amos Dicky in farming, stock raising, etc., has been dissolved by mutual consent. Amos Dicky will continue the business and settle all accounts with the firm.

ON TO OREGON.

The Rails Steadily Growing Towards the Northern Line.

The GAZETTE has of late had so much to say about railroads in general, and the Nevada and Oregon in particular, that it seems to most of our readers that no more space need be given to the subject. And yet so many letters of inquiry come to the office, and so many people ask questions about it, and it is a matter of such great importance to Reno and this county, and the State, that too much information can not be sent abroad in regard to it. There is now nothing to hinder the speedy extension of the road. All the difficult details of organization, of the choice of routes, and of the selection of men have been happily solved and are out of the way. The work is all laid out, all the parts are in good hands, and

HARMONY AND ENERGY

Pervade the whole institution. The road now built covers all the difficult portions, and for miles and miles ahead there is nothing to do but to smooth a bed and lay the track. It is some time since anyone connected with the GAZETTE has been in the councils of the company, and it is not informed as to their future plans exactly. It is not stated whether they will first run their main line on north, or build from the Junction on their Plumas county branch. Either country is worthy of a railroad, and will give it a profitable support. The Plumas county branch will strike through Beckworth Pass and across Sierra valley, the most productive region in eastern California. It will run through a good country all the way to Quincy. It is about equally divided between agriculture and mining, and will give a large freight and passenger business to the road. The Plumas-Eureka is the best gold mine in California, and it consumes vast quantities of material, and there are dozens of others that are doing well. Sierra, Mohawk and American valleys produce large quantities of hay, grain, fruit, cattle and sheep. The people of Greenville also look for a spur up their way, through Clover, Genesee and Indian valleys. The country is

VERY PROMISING

For such an enterprise. If the Company concludes to put its line through to the Oregon line direct, the prospect for business is still more flattering, although the road would be longer. Down Long valley and along Honey lake, no country could be more favorable to build a road over, and the productive ranches already in cultivation would throw a large business in grain, fruit and cattle to the road. Beyond Honey lake, the Madeline plains. Surprise and Goose lake valleys will reach out to meet the road, before it gets halfway. There is a very decided improvement this year of the country to be reached, and the prospects are far better than they were when the road was begun. When it was organized first, the whole country was depressed and business dull. This was really no detriment, however, but perhaps an advantage, as it caused the promoters of the scheme to look into the matter very carefully before moving. They worked slowly, but surely, and left no loop-holes open. The more that is learned of the country and its growing condition, the brighter everything looks, and

THE FUTURE OF THE ROAD

Is very cheerful, indeed. The people in Reno and along the road will probably see some rapid work in the next few months. The grading forces are 21 miles out and progressing rapidly. Kendall rode through the big cut near the end of the track yesterday; so it will not delay the tracklayers. The construction train is running to the front, carrying out ties, iron spikes and splices. The Company have a handsome little engine, one that is plenty large enough to do the work at present, and that will always be handy one way and another. She took four car-loads of iron up the hill yesterday in half an hour, and did it easy. There are several miles of iron spikes, bolts and splices lying here, and will be sent to the end of the track. There is a marked increase in the interest manifested by the citizens of Reno and Nevada within the past few weeks. This is proper, as the interests of the Company and the people of this section are identical, and each should do all they can to build up and support the other.

Superior Workmanship.

at moderate rates is guaranteed by WM. GORRELL, the leading watchmaker and jeweler of Reno. He warrants all his work for twelve months, and makes jewelry of every description to order at his store on Virginia street.

BOYD'S SENTIMENTS.

He Explains his Views of the County Certificates.

After waiting in vain two days for County Treasurer Boyd to make some statement 'in' explanation or contradiction of the statement of the paper in relation to the certificates of deposit, a reporter called last evening, and found him out. He called again this morning and found him in, but vexed. In answer to an invitation to use the columns of the GAZETTE freely, he gave his side of the case. In the first place he takes strong exception to Mr. Bender's statement that he made a full explanation of the certificates. He says Kinkead told him the certificates were for the Norton estate. He asked Bender if this was true, and he simply said "yes." He recognizes the fact that it is a question of veracity between them, and does not wish to discuss it until he testifies in the courts. He says he received the certificates with the understanding that payment was stopped in the banks until such time as the Norton estate raised the money to meet them. The certificates on the face were payable on presentation, but he, all the time, believed that the banks could refuse to pay them, under the agreement with the bondsmen and commissioners. He says he did not receive them as money at all, and did not accept any responsibility with them. He received them as an individual, not as an officer of the county. It was his duty, as he sees it, to take what was given him and take care of it, but if the amounts were correct it was none of his business. The reporter asked him if the certificates should not have been collected. He answered "yes," but he thinks it was the duty of the Commissioners or District Attorney, and not his. He says the Commissioners have counted it every quarter since January, 1878, and has tried repeatedly to get them to do something with it. (They say that he told them it was cash, and offered to go and get the money if they wished). He tried to get the Grand Jury of 1880 to order suits brought against the bank or the bondsmen in April, and he thinks the committee did recommend it but the Grand Jury threw it out. He says when he took the office he had the coin that was supposed to be in the Treasury piled out on the counter and had the Commissioners called in. They counted it and accepted it, and he put the coin in bags and sealed them up and put them in the banks as special deposits. He says the certificates were not counted as coin, and that if anybody was to blame it was Hymers, for all the others were green. He was an old member of the Board, knew all about the bargain and should not have accepted the certificate. He counted it for two years, and the present board counted it for a year and a half. Dan thinks he is only responsible for his own acts, and not for those of his predecessor. He says after others making the bargains and accepting the papers and carrying them along, he does not think he should be made the scapegoat for their sins. As soon as he discovered that the Norton balance was only $800, and that the $2,000 paper must be for something else, he notified the District attorney, and did all he could to find what it was for. He says the whole blame rests on his predecessor, and he has no interest or responsibility whatever.

The Jumpers Jumped.

Harry Clawson has returned from his trip to Douglas county, where he went to secure his mining property. The mine is situated about 32 miles southeast of Carson. He found Bluet & Co., from Dayton and Suro, claiming the property, and Clawson immediately took the necessary steps to warn them off. The Suro gang had ordered Clawson's man, Erickson, to leave, but he was taken back. The jumping fever ought to have an end in this country sometime.

Hopper Valley.

Grasshopper Valley is 20 miles south of Big Valley, Lassen county. It covers an area of 10 square miles. The soil in the northern part is covered with sage brush, while the central and southern part is one vast tract of meadow land.

Everybody's Picture.

LaRoche & Sooy have finished some smaller copies of the large photograph medley exhibited at Allen's. The pictures are well finished and no doubt will find a ready sale.

TRUCKEE'S MISFORTUNE.

Her Fifth Experience—Exact Figures of Losses and Insurance.

The Truckee Republican of yesterday says:

At this date it is useless for the REPUBLICAN to give a detailed account of the fire, as the facts are known far and wide. We shall, therefore, be brief, as limited space demands it. Suffice it to say; Truckee's business houses, with but a few exceptions, are in ashes. How the fire started is not generally known. One report says that a kerosene lamp and a number of drunken women caused the fire; another report is that the fire was communicated to the walls of the "White House" from a blaring frying pan of beefsteak. Be this as it may, the fire originated in the "White house"—a dance house on Jiboom street, causing the following parties to lose more or less property. We have endeavored to get every loser. If any are overlooked, they will please make it known to us immediately. The total loss of property is estimated at about $350,000. The greater losses are as follows: P. Sheridan, $12,000. Richardson Bros., $1,500. Moody stables, $2,000. Graziar & Stoll, $5,000. B. S. Paschen, $4,000. Sission, Wallace & Co., $3,000. Mrs. Chiam, $1,000. Q. Brickel, $4,000. M. E. Burkhalter & Co., $10,000. S. B. Weller, $1,500. H. Taylor, $300. T. M. Bittancourt, $2,000. T. B. Towner, $4,000. J. Adolph, $31,000. J. Gray, $8,000. J. F. Moody, $6,000. F. Rabel, $10,000. Dr. Curless, $500. J. L. Lewison & Co., $25,000. Lenahan & Dixon, $2,000. Andy Johnson, $13,000. J. Williams, $4,000. J. G. Booth, $500. W. H. Hurd, $12,000. H. Davis, $10,000. Geo. Dunster, $300. S. McKay, $20,000. J. Sherritt, $5,000. F. P. Stevens, $4,500. G. W. Harrison, $10,000. Mrs. Durno, $3,000. Paul Menk, $7,000. J. Ridley, $3,000. Charles Wade, $3,000. Truckee REPUBLICAN $4,000. Truckee Lumber Company, $3,500. J. Gray, $1,500. Joseph Marzen also suffers considerably.

The Good Templars lose their hall and furniture.

Besides these losses there were numerous houses burned on Jiboom street entailing considerable loss. Of the property destroyed, we are informed the insurance companies will pay about $100,000.

Wayward Western Wedlock.

The following items are taken from the Yuma Free Press of a late date: Two elopements occurred on the 16th of last month at El Dorado Canyon. J. W. Joachim, Justice of the Peace, fell in love with Miss Libbie Ferguson, and his attachment was reciprocated. Marriage was suggested and an effort made to procure a license at Pioche, but as Joachim had a wife at that place, the County Clerk obstinately refused to issue one. The lovers then went to Mineral Park, but all efforts toward legitimate connection failed again, as the fact of the first wife was also known there. Disgusted with the miserable technicalities of the law, the couple settled down to housekeeping without any further formality, with the bride's mother as cook. Mr. Snell ran away with Mrs. Davis and took her to Cottonwood Island. There they lived on love and hard tack for about a week, when the lady grew tired of waiting her sweet husband in the forest and returned to her husband. The latter received her as though she had never been missed.

Fatal Accident.

One day last week a little nephew of W. J. H. Treadway, a Renoite now residing in Lodi, was run over and killed. The little fellow was trying to climb into a wagon but slipped and fell under the wheels. The wagon was stopped and backed but not in time to prevent fatal injuries.

Fine Ranch for Sale.

Wm. Anderson will sell the Fish Spring ranch at a bargain, on account of moving to Reno. He has a splendid place and it lies where prices are high.

DIG YIELDS.

The Big Ranchers of Lovelocks and Big Meadows and Their Big Crops.

Correspondence.

Editor Gazette:—On my way West I spent a few days at Big Meadows. I visited John Reed's ranch, and found everybody good-natured over the prospect of a splendid harvest. They have cut and threshed a volunteer crop of grain that went over a ton to the acre. Stock had run on it till the 5th of April, and water had been put on it twice. That shows most conclusively what can be done by fall sowing. They have 140 acres in grain, and expect it will yield 140 tons. Alfalfa yielded 3 tons to the acre the first cutting. In the three cuttings it will average 8 tons. They have 9 acres of vegetables. Hitherto the supply of vegetables came from California, but that day is past. Big Meadows has enough and to spare.

Good crops means better houses, trees planted, fences, etc. People will cease to talk "hard times." They will gradually have the comforts and luxuries of life. On the right of the railroad, Marzen has been enlarging his borders, and while one cannot rejoice at the untimely taking off of their neighbors, it is a good thing to have a place improved. Marzen's many acres are yielding alfalfa, principally. Those uncultivated are being used for pasture. I got a few items as to numbers of acres cultivated this season, by different farmers, but it is hardly necessary to give them. Harrison and John Ryan were mentioned as each having 20 acres of potatoes. Eight or ten men are mentioned as having from 50 to 80 acres of grain, and several have from 150 to 300.

At the station there are four stores, and we heard of one or two buildings that are to be put up this fall; good, substantial buildings. M. W. K.

Personal.

W. M. Havenor will return to Eureka.

Al. Nichols, of H. H. & Co., is in Eureka.

W. Crane, Geo. Stiles and Mrs. M. J. Howard have gone camping.

A. H. Manning and Gov. Woods returned from Tahoe to-day.

Dr. Hutchins will be found in Judge Boardman's office for a short time.

C. E. Laughton, paymaster of the V. & T. R. R., remunerated the boys last night.

J. C. Hagerman returned from San Francisco to-day where he has been replenishing his stock.

Mr. Leermo, President of the Gold Hill Miners' Union, and Mr. McGinnis, ex-President of the same Union, were in Reno last night.

Great Bargain.

I offer for sale one of the finest stock ranches in the State, known as the Fish Spring Ranch, the best station on the Reno and Surprise road, 49 miles north of Reno, containing 40 acres doeded land, 300 acres under fence, with all necessary cross fences. Good dwelling house and all necessary out-buildings, corral, etc. Also a beautiful fish pond in the yard. The fences, corral, etc. are all first-class. A No. 1 barn holding 210 tons of hay. There is a good bearing orchard, also plenty of small fruits and vegetables all kinds grow in abundance. I will sell this ranch with 250 tons of hay, with or without farming implements, tools, wagons, harness, horses, etc., on easy terms. For particulars inquire of Wm. Anderson or L. W. Lee, Reno, Nevada. aug 11-1m

At the Asylum.

Contractor Hymers reports everything lovely at the new Asylum. The stone work on the east side has all been finished, and the excavation for the cellar has been completed, and is ready for the walls. Brick work will begin in about five days. The contractors will do the carpenter work for the present by the day's work. They have appointed James Bristol foreman.

Gray Gets Twenty Years.

REDWOOD CITY, August 9. In the case of The People vs. Clarence Gray, defendant's motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment was overruled, and defendant was sentenced to the State Prison for twenty years. The Sheriff of the county was ordered to appear in court and purge himself of contempt for giving liquors to the jury.

Didn't Make Much Difference.

Stenographer's Herald.

He walked into the office this morning looking much like a man pretty well satisfied with general results, and said:

"Can I see the editor?"

He was shown that eminently useful adjunct to a newspaper at once.

"Good morning, sir," he cheerily began.

"Mornin'," said the editor.

"I came in," he proceeded, to tell you of a misprint in the paper."

"Yes! What is it?"

"Well, you see, I sent a notice around yesterday that Mr. Smith had just been married, and your compositor, I see, has got it, 'Mr. Smith has just been married,' but I guess it don't make enough difference to change it."

The editor scratched his head for a minute and thought of house-cleaning and other feminine eccentricities, and told the visitor of course it didn't and he went away whistling. "Why should the spirit of mortal be proud?"

Dinner in France.

John Durand in the August Atlantic.

Dinner in France is supposed to be the one great event of the day. So it is, but not because it is a feeding operation. On the contrary, this French meal is a domestic symposium, in which head and heart take precedence of the stomach. The interest and value of a meal in France depends more on the social than on the culinary element. Old Isaac Walton's dictum that the company makes the feast, and not the food, is of special significance in France. One rarely sees a Frenchman dining alone, not for the reason that he wants some one to look at, or to drink with, but because he wishes some one to talk to. Conversation accordingly renders the French table unique. I am inclined to think that the modern French dinner-table is the substitute to the old salon to which the "feast of reason and the flow of soul" used to be wholly confined. In any event the chief attraction of the French table nowadays is conversation.

Be Wise and Happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or harmful chemicals, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments, you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.
